Tttttttttt Numb. 6633.

The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, January 24. 1723.

Florence, January 5.

THIS Court has ſent new Inſtructions to the Abbé Franchini at Cambray, concerning the Succeſſion to theſe Dominions. It is reported, that the Siennois ſeem more inclined to be under the Protection of a German Prince, than of an Infante of Spain. Prince Theodore of Bavaria arrived here a few Days paſt from Munich, and paid his Reſpects the ſame Day to the Grand Duke, by whom he was graciouſly received. The Miniſter of Spain at this Court behaves with great Affability to the Senators, and endeavours to win their Affections. The Grand Duke has bought up 500 Horſes, but to what End ſo great a Number is purchaſed is not publickly known. It is reported, that the Pope is to cauſe three Articles to be propoſed in the Congreſs at Cambray. 1. The Reſtitution of Commachio and its Independence on the Empire. 2. The Conſervation of the Rights of the Church in the States of Parma and Placencia. 3. The Reduction of Montalio in the Monferrat, and its Re-eſtabliſhment in all its Privileges.

Vienna, Jan. 6. It has been reported for ſome time paſt, that the Empreſs is with Child, nevertheleſs the Phyſicians are of Opinion, that a little more Time is neceſſary towards the Confirmation of this News. The Court's Journey to Bohemia is very certain, to which purpoſe the Count de Breda has already offered to advance the Sum of 100,000 Florins, and the Emperour's Orders are already iſſued to moſt of the Houſhold Officers to make the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for going thither. As to the Alterations deſigned to be made in the Palace here, 'tis thought nothing certain is determined on that Subject; all that is yet known, is, that the Emperour often pleaſes himſelf with viewing the Model of a new Febrick, but has not hitherto explained himſelf determinately about it. The late Accounts of the Pope's Illneſs has been received here with no immoderate Concern, it being little doubted but his Holineſs's Succeſſour, whoſoever it may be, would not be leſs inclined to favour the Auſtrian Intereſt than it is at preſent favoured. The laſt Advices from Rome intimate it to be the general Opinion, that the Pope is not very long liv'd. The Palatine Envoy here has ventured to give freſh Aſſurances, that the Elector his Maſter has given effectual Orders for a ſpeedy Execution of Redreſs; nevertheleſs, Advices muſt be received firſt of all from Ratisbon, before that Article can be thoroughly believed. A Gentleman from the King of Pruſſia is arrived here, tho' without any publick Character as yet, and has had frequent Conferences with the Vice-Chancellour of the Empire. - - - Letters from Conſtantinople ſay, that M. Bonac, Ambaſſadour of France at the Ottoman Porte, has, by Orders from his Court, demanded of the Grand Vizier, 'If the preſent extraordinary Military Preparations carrying on there are 'deſigned againſt the Malteze; in which Caſe, the 'King his Maſter would take Meaſures accordingly?' To which, 'tis ſaid, the Grand Vizier anſwered, 'They were deſigned to a quite diffe-'rent End.' Nevertheleſs, 'tis ſaid the King of Spain has deſired of the Emperour, that the Fleet which his Catholick Majeſty intends to ſend againſt the Turks in caſe they attack the Malteze, may have the Benefit of his Imperial Majeſty's Ports as Occaſion ſhall require. 'Tis reported that the Baron de Bentenrieder is to make a Tour hither before the opening of the Congreſs at Cambray, to receive ſome verbal Inſtructions from this Court. The Count de Tſchernin is ſet out for Bohemia, where he will prepare his Equipage for his Embaſſy to Rome. By Virtue of a Bull newly publiſhed, the Pope will permit Cardinals no more to negociate the Affairs of Potentates, that the Purple may be kept from being ſtained with worldly Occupations.

Hamburg, Jan. 22. Advices from Ukrania and Podolia ſay, that the Turks are drawing off by Degrees their Forces from the Danube and marching towards the Ruſſian Frontiers, while the Tartars poſted near Aſſack, along the Boriſthenes, to the Number of 30,000, are in Motion in order to join the Turks; and alſo, that 4000 Janizaries who were quartered in Wallachia, in the Neighbourhood of Choczim, are moving higher into the Country. The Czar has cauſed a great Number of Horſes to be bought up in Courland, and other Places, to recruit his Cavalry. Letters from Petersbourg ſay, that the Czar will augment the Penſions, and Appointments of all his Miniſters and Officers belonging to his Court. It is reported, that Prince Menzikoff is diſpoſed to reſign all his Employments, in order to retire to his own Eſtates, to paſs the remainder of his Days in Repoſe and Freedom from publick Buſineſs: 'Tis ſaid, thoſe Employments will no more be conferred upon one Perſon, but be executed by Commiſſioners. Advices from Moſcow ſay, that the Dutcheſs of Mecklenbourg has been indiſpoſed, but is on the Recovery, and that the Czarina Dowager is almoſt given over by her Phyſicians. Prince Menzikoff not being at Moſcow, Prince Cantimer, at preſent is at the Head of moſt of the publick Buſineſs.

Hague, Jan. 26. The States continue ſitting, but the Matters concerning North-Holland which have principally taken up their Time hitherto, are upon the Point of being finiſhed, the Conſent of ſome of the Cities to the Reſolution for paying the Debts of North-Holland being now received. The City of Leyden oppoſes the ſending a Squadron next Summer into the Streights, as being needleſs and of no Manner of Advantage to Commerce, declaring they will not contribute any thing towards that Expence; ſo that the ſending out the Squadron which was talked of remains now a Matter of Doubt. The States General has given an Anſwer to the Memorial of the Daniſh Miniſter concerning the Payment of Arrears due to the Troops furniſhed by that Crown, but that Miniſter has this Day preſented another Memorial by Orders from his Court, ſignifying among other Particulars, that the King his Maſter grants yet a farther Time of two Months for the Receipt of thoſe Arrears. It is reported, that the Zealanders have agreed upon Means for paying their Taxes, to diſcharge alſo the Debts due to the Troops, and Civil Officers, which have been left unpaid a conſiderable Time.
